WHAT IS SUPPORT COORDINATION

Support Coordination is a service offered by a disability provider that assists participants to use their NDIS plan and funding to the absolute best.

The role of the Support Coordinator is to help you coordinate your supports (such as therapy, personal care, or community access etc) required in your everyday life and make sure they are implemented in a way that suits your individual lifestyle.

The Support Coordinators number one goal should be to enhance your life with supports that empower you!

WHAT ARE SOME OF THE THINGS THEY MIGHT DO?

- Understand and use your NDIS plan to work toward your goals.
- Connect you with a range of service providers, community, mainstream and other government services.
- Work with you to build your confidence and skills
- Coordinate your plans funding allocations.
- Live more independently
- Feel more included in your community
- Make sure your choices and wishes are respected.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW DO I GET A SUPPORT COORDINATOR?

If Support Coordination is funded in your NDIS Plan, its as simple as giving us a call or email! If you aren't funded for Support Coordination you can still give us a call and we can work out how to support you to get it!

WHAT HAPPENS IF MY SUPPORT COORDINATOR LEAVES?

Unfortunately sometimes people change jobs, whilst we wish we could keep our staff forever, we always support them to continue to grow. If your Support Coordinator leaves, we have a process in place to ensure you are well supported by a friendly and familiar face you met at the beginning! We will always communicate and work quickly to ensure you are never without support.

DO I STILL HAVE CHOICE & CONTROL?

Always! This is your NDIS journey, our role is to support you to work towards your goals! the services you wish to use and connect to.

A support coordinator is there to help you build your capacity and confidence so that you can eventually coordinate your own supports or services.
